Malaysian Restriction on Indians

*306. SHRI KRISHNA KUMAR BIRLA:

SHRI SUSHILKUMAR SAMBHAJIRAO SHINDE;

Will the Minister of EXTERNAL AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether the Malaysian Government have imposed ban on the Indians visiting Malaysia

(b) if so, what are the reasons therefor; and

(c) what is the reaction of Government thereto?

THE MINISTER OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI DINESH SINGH): (a) No, Sir. The Malaysian Government have however introduced a new legislation which makes it mandatory for visa applicants from India (as well as from Pakistan, Bangladesh and Sri Lanka) to apply two months in advance, with a local sponsor paying Malaysian dollars 750 as guarantee that the applicant will return before the expiry of visa.

(b) No reasons have been given.

(c) This was taken up strongly with the Government of Malaysia on the grounds that such restrictions would impede business and economic, as well as people-to-(people contract. In response, Malaysian authorities that they are reviewing their decision in this regard.
